Members of the Velo Girardeau Bicycle Club are moving forward on several fronts to make the community a better, safer place to bicycle.

Strong community support for bicycling

Petition to the City Council, signed by over 900 local residents, asking for improvements to bicycle traffic safety in Cape Girardeau.

Annual Bicycle Events

Tour de Cape - 300 riders

Tour de Corn - 600 riders

City Bicycle Committee

Bicycle Planning Committee with local cyclists, city planners and staffers in developing a comprehensive plan for bike lanes, routes, corridors, etc.

Mississippi River Trail and TransAmerica Trail

These nationwide bicycle tourism routes attract thousands of bicyclists each year and pass through southeast Missouri.

MoDOT has agreed to better maintain these routes for bicycling

Sales Tax will support better on-road bicycle routes and trails

Parks and Recreation Board proposed 00.10 % sales tax increase will fund improvements for local Parks and Recreation facilities including trails and on-street bicycle facilities.

20-year Comprehensive Plan

Cape Girardeau's 20 year Comprehensive Plan includes a wide-ranging system of recreational trails and on-road bike routes.
